The last quarter of 2019 was an exceptionally productive period for FSI. The training of Indian diplomats/personnel, inter alia, included Joint Secretaries in Mid-Career Training Programme (MCTP-III) and Director-level officers in MCTP-II. The year-end saw the arrival of IFS Officer Trainees of the 2019 batch for their Induction Training Programme.

The foreigners training gathered momentum with an unprecedented 15 courses for foreign diplomats during the quarter. These included the flagship 68th Professional Course for Foreign Diplomats (PCFD) and annual ASEM-ASEAN and Bangladesh courses. The period also included the second India-China Joint Programme for Afghan Diplomats. In addition, the very first special courses for diplomats from Mongolia, Maldives, Dominican Republic, Benin, Cameroon, Democratic Republic of Congo, Gabon, Côte d'Ivoire, Kenya, Namibia and Malawi were organised. Overall, as compared to 9 and 16 training courses for foreign diplomats during 2017 and 2018 respectively, the year 2019 ended with a record 36 training courses for foreign diplomats involving more than 750 diplomats.

Two firsts for FSI during the quarter were:

(i) Familiarisation programme for MEA beat journalists in association with External Publicity Division; and

(ii) Training programme for performing artistes of Indian Cultural Centres abroad in cooperation with ICCR.

A highlight was the very special in-house conversation between Hon'ble Dr. S. Jaishankar, External Affairs Minister of India and Dr. Henry Kissinger, former US Secretary of State for MEA officers, organised by FSI in collaboration with the Americas Division, at Pravasi Bharatiya Kendra.

We wish all the alumni of FSI and readers of Videsh Sewa a very happy New Year 2020.

A Glimpse of Cultural Extravaganza at the Foreign Service Institute

A cultural programme was organised during the valedictory function of 68th PCFD on 11 October 2019. Participating diplomats also put up a couple of performances.
About Foreign Service Institute

The Foreign Service Institute (FSI) was established in 1986 by the Government of India primarily to cater to the professional training needs of the Indian Foreign Service and the Ministry of External Affairs, New Delhi. FSI has diversified its activities to include Courses for foreign diplomats in its efforts to build bridges of friendship and cooperation with countries around the world and Courses of interest to staff and officers at all levels of the Ministry of External Affairs as well as other Civil Services. The Institute is located at Baba Gangnath Marg, Old JNU Campus, New Delhi.

FSI is headed by the Dean, a senior Foreign Service officer of the rank of Secretary in the Ministry of External Affairs. The current Dean is Amb J.S. Mukul. FSI has an extensive guest faculty drawn from experts in the field of academics and research, the media, public life, industry and trade, senior serving and retired diplomats and other government officials.
